Medical Instructions

All persons included in your application, whether accompanying you or not, will be required to undergo a medical examination with a physician on the list of designated doctors. If you are a divorced or separated parent, a minor child of whom you have joint or sole custody is considered your dependent child, even if he or she usually lives with the other parent and is not accompanying you to Canada.

The Canadian Embassy in Warsaw does not require that you complete an immigration medical examination before submitting your application for permanent residence. After your fully completed application form and your supporting documents are received, we will determine whether you will be required to attend a personal interview. If an interview is deemed necessary, medical instructions will be held on file until the outcome of the interview is known. If an interview is not required, medical instructions will be mailed to you and, if applicable, your family members.

After you receive the necessary medical forms, you and your family members must undergo the necessary medical examinations with one of the doctors on the list of designated doctors, unless you and/or your family members live in a country not included on this list. If you wish to have your medical examinations in a country not included on this list, please inform us and we will ensure that you receive the appropriate list.

You will be responsible for the costs of the medical examination for all your family members.

Please note that, at the time of medical examination, you and all family members will be required to present individual passports as evidence of identity. If each of your family members does not already have an individual passport, you should apply to obtain them now.

The permanent residence visa has the same validity period as the medical results, that is, 12 months from the date of the first examination or test.
