Appendix B

Photo Specifications

Notes to the applicant

TAKE THIS WITH YOU TO THE PHOTOGRAPHER

- Immigration photos are not the same as passport photos.
- Make sure that you provide the correct number of photos specified in this guide.

Notes to the photographer

The photos must:

- show a full front view of the person's head and shoulders showing full face centered in the middle of the photograph;
- have a plain white background;
- be identical (black and white or colour) produced from the same untouched negative, or exposed simultaneously by a split-image or multi-lens camera.

The photos must:

- measure between 25 mm and 30 mm (1" and 1 1/5") from chin to crown;
- have a 35 mm x 45 mm (1 3/8" x 1 3/4") finished size.

Appendix C

Medical Instructions

Everyone included in your application, whether accompanying you to Canada or not, must undergo a medical examination. If you are a divorced or separated parent, a minor child of whom you have joint or sole custody is considered your dependent child, even if he or she usually lives with the other parent and is not accompanying you to Canada.

Instructions for the medical examination will be provided after your application has been assessed by a Canadian visa officer.

After you receive the necessary medical forms, you must make an appointment with one of the doctors on the list of panel doctors. You must use one of the physicians on this list. All costs related to the medical examinations are your responsibility.

When you go for your medical examination, take the following:

- The Medical Report Form
- Identification such as a passport, birth certificate, driver's licence (at least one item must show your photograph and signature).
- Eye glasses, if worn.
- Any relevant medical reports, additional tests or previous X-rays that you may have as a result of particular medical conditions or previous treatments. This will save processing time.

Tell the physician about all past and present illnesses, operations and treatments. Failure to do so will delay the medical assessment and processing of your application.

Once you have undergone the necessary examinations, tests and chest X-rays, the designated doctor is responsible for collecting all necessary medical reports and forwarding them to us.
