PRE-APPLICATION MEDICAL EXAMINATION – UNIVERSITY

- Students applying to Canadian Universities may have their medical examination before submitting their Study Permit application by visiting one of the panel physicians in India.
- It is not mandatory to complete a medical examination prior to submission of your application. However, doing so may result in faster processing. Medical results are valid for one year. Do not undergo a subsequent medical examination if you had one in the last year.
- After completion of your medical examination, the panel physician will provide you with one copy of your medical examination form. This form must be submitted together with your Study Permit application.
- DO NOT SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION UNTIL ONE WEEK AFTER YOUR MEDICAL EXAMINATION IS COMPLETED.
- Submission of this form does not guarantee approval of your application. Do not make any commitments until your study permit application has been approved. All costs for the medical examination are payable by the applicant and non-refundable.

APPLICATION FOR A STUDY PERMIT – UNIVERSITY

- This checklist should be used in conjunction with the IMM 5483 Document Checklist for a Study Permit
- Any document not in English or French must be accompanied by a certified translation.
- Failure to submit all required documentation may result in the refusal of your application or delay processing.
- False statements or submission of fraudulent documents will result in refusal.
- You may be required to attend an interview.
- A medical exam may be required for study program exceeding 6 months. Study permit applicants can undergo up-front medical examinations, per instructions below.
- We strongly recommend that you submit your application at least three months ahead of your proposed date of travel. Applications that are received after 01 April for May entry, after 01 August for September entry and after 01 December for January entry will not normally be processed in time for the start of classes and may be refused.
- When submitting your completed and signed application form, be sure to include the barcode page.
- Accompanying spouse and children of all ages must submit their own application forms.
